

The Central Ohio AGA is excited to announce a joint breakfast seminar with the Central Ohio Institute of Internal Auditors. We are pleased to have James Kreimer, DSCC Internal Audit Office present Risk Based Internal Auditing – Reaching Optimization.

The presentation will address the following:

- What is Risk Management, and why should we do it
- COSO, ISO 31000, 10K, Vocabulary
- Lessons learned from Defense Supply Center, Columbus
- Practical Tools – the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly
- Senior Management Involvement
- Practical Exercises
- Brainstorming Risks for your specific business or company

Participants will gain the following:

- Understand Risk Management
- Practical Tools to Accomplish Risk Management
- Risks and Controls for your specific company or business

CPE Credit: 2 hours

Date: Thursday, March 25, 2010

Time: Registration: 8:00 a.m. Presentation is from 8:30-10:30 a.m.

Location: 94th Aero Squadron Restaurant near the Airport

Cost: Members: $25

Non-Members: $35

Note: Cost includes a breakfast for all pre-registered attendees.

More Info: <http://www.theiia.org/chapters/index.cfm?cid=38>