

Kennedy Cottrell Richards, a progressive accounting, auditing, and consulting firm specializing in services to governmental agencies is seeking self-motivated individuals for a Staff Accountant position. We offer a relaxed and creative work environment and a competitive salary and benefit package commensurate with experience.

Responsibilities include: financial and compliance audits, financial statement compilations, account reconciliations, and a variety of other accounting and consulting-related opportunities.

Requirements: Candidates should possess a B.S. Degree in Accounting, and be a CPA or at least on track to becoming a CPA. Proficiency with Microsoft Office is required. Experience working with governmental accounting and auditing standards is preferred.

To apply, please e-mail your resume to the attention of Bill Kennedy, bill@kcr-cpa.com